

Guerrilla Bands Fan New War In Balkans

"Irregulars" Invade Other Countries in Efforts to Extend Boundaries.

MAY INVOLVE ALL EUROPE

Supreme Council of Allies Expected to Take Hand in the Fighting.

(By Henry Wood)
By United Press Leased Wire
Rome.—Sweeping down from the highlands of Macedonia and Albania, great bands of irregular soldiers Tuesday are threatening to start another Balkan war which may involve all of Europe.

The fighters—almost bandits in their mode of warfare, but driven by strong nationalist feeling—entered foreign countries. Pillage and arson marked their trail. The governments thus taunted immediately planned to raise forces to combat them. The old Balkan troubles were involved in the fighting. Greece wants more land to the north; Bulgaria wants to reclaim some of the territory lost in the war and Serbia wants to retain her newly won lands.

Latest advices received here showed the situation especially critical in Macedonia and Albania, whose problems were not solved by the treaties of St.
Germain and Sevres.

Reports showed that large bands of Comitajis (irregulars) have been recruited throughout the Balkans, almost every portion of the war torn region having contributed its share of fighting men. The governments back of them either are arming to protect their legitimate interests or are preparing to back the Comitajis from their own country in an effort to extend their boundaries.

Fear New War
Officials here feared that before the allied supreme council or the league of nations can intervene, the Comitajis will clash with regular military forces and start the conflict which may embroil not only the Balkans but spread through Europe.

The danger in Albania is due to the fact that the Greeks have occupied strategic points commanding the two most important Albanian cities, Koritsa and Argyrocastro, while the Serbians are holding the river Drin in northeastern Albania. The Albanians although intending no offensive themselves, are mobilizing to prevent further occupation.

Greeks Are Active
The most serious phase of the situation is believed to be that resulting from the Greeks' initiative. They claim Koritsa and Argyrocastro because of alleged promises to former Premier Venizelos for Greece's services to the entente. Because of the reverses they have suffered in their offensive against the Turks in Asia Minor, the Greeks are extremely anxious to annex the two cities and thus reestablish King Constantine's prestige. The Albanians are determined to resist this effort.

In northeastern Albania, the Serbian Comitajis continue to raid towards long coveted Scutari.
There is a similarly critical situation in Serbian Macedonia where Bulgarian Comitajis have been encroaching on both Serbian and Greek territory. They are likely to clash at any time with the regular frontier guards, provoking an open war.

HARDING SENDS OUT "HOLIDAY" FEELERS

Washington.—Informal feelers looking toward the discussion of disarmament between the world powers have been put out at the instance of President Harding, it was learned Tuesday.
This action, it was understood, was taken before the senate passed the Borah resolution calling for a disarmament conference. Although divulged, of the plan have not been divulged,
it was said that Harding has suggested informally the great powers that the question be considered by the supreme council. He believes this method more satisfactory than an attempt to settle the question at a special disarmament conference.

The president, according to best indications Tuesday still holds the view that Borah's resolution would unduly tie the hands of the executive.

At the time of the appointment of Colonel George Harvey as ambassador to Great Britain, it was announced that he would be instructed to broach
the subject of a disarmament agreement abroad. Information obtained Tuesday indicated that the first step in carrying out this course has already taken place.

RETIREMENT BILL RIDER IS WITHIN THE LAW

Madison.—The surtax rider attached to the teacher retirement pension fund bill in the assembly was held constitutional in an opinion handed down Tuesday by Attorney General William J. Morgan.

The amendment was attached to the bill by Assemblyman John Dahl and raises a tax estimated at $2,000,000 on incomes of $6,000 and more to take care of the state's share of expenses
in the proposed bill.
The measure is now pending in the senate.

STORK STORY IS BUNK, DOUG FAIRBANKS SAYS

By United Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Cal.—"The only bird I have seen hovering around here is an ostrich that was given us last Christmas—and that is for sale, cheap," Douglas Fairbanks, declared Tuesday in denying published reports that his wife, Mary Pickford Fairbanks, is preparing for a visit from the stork.
"There is absolutely no truth in the report," continued Fairbanks.
"If such a wonderful thing were true we would have no reason to do-ny it."

POSTPONE TRIAL WHEN ACCUSED SLAYER FAINTS

Bridgeport, Conn.—A court was forced to recess Tuesday because of the collapse of Mrs. George E. Nott, on trial for complicity in the murder of her husband.
Mrs. Nott fainted while Daniel C.
Ferguson, a friend of her gambler husband, was describing the condition of the latter's body as it lay in a morgue after it was recovered from a swamp where it had been sunk in a trunk. After she was revived Mrs.
Nott was hysterical and the recess was ordered to permit her to recover.

Technicality Cuts Woman Off From Share In Estate

BELIEVE MARINE STRIKE NEAR END

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Hope for a lasting settlement of the strike of marine engineers and seamen would be effected late Tuesday, was expressed by officials of the labor department.
Secretary of Labor Davis Tuesday afternoon was to confer with a committee of strikers, Admiral Benson of the United States shipping board, and representatives of private vessel owners.
The strike committee and Benson have practically reached agreement on a 15 per cent wage reduction but the private vessel owners thus far have refused to go in. Strike officials Tuesday were prepared to sign up with Admiral Benson and arrange a date for return to work.
Some insurgents in the rank and file, however, may prevent a settlement because of their refusal to accept the wage reduction.

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—Mrs. L. C. Hahn, Racine, lost the residue of the $75,000 estate left her by Theodore W. Johnson in a decision handed down by the supreme court Tuesday on which the judgment of the trial court was affirmed.
The opinion written by Justice
Owen, held that because Mrs. Hahn was a subscribing witness to the will and there were not two other subscribing witnesses, she is barred under the law from being a beneficiary under the will.
The decision gives the residue of the estate to the heirs at law of the aged recluse who willed Mrs. Hahn the residue of his property because she had befriended him and shown numerous acts of kindness to him in the declining years of his life.
The right of Wisconsin municipalities to condemn land in another state for municipal purposes was upheld by Justice Owen in an opinion favoring the contention of the city of Superior.
The court held the city had the right to purchase and extend municipal activities providing the law of the invaded state did not hold to the contrary. This gives Superior the right of acquiring and condemning property in Duluth for utility purposes.

Labor Demands Immediate Freight Rate Reduction

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A demand that the proposed cut in railroad wages be accompanied by a reduction in rates on Pacific coast fruits and vegetables, was made Tuesday by J. B. Malloy, vice-president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers.
"Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of fruit and vegetables cannot be shipped to the hungry east because of high rail rates and are rotting in California," Malloy said in a statement.
"If the railroad executives who have been talking so much are acting in good faith, it will be up to them June 1 when wage cuts are announced, to show it by reducing freight rates proportionately. If rates from the Pacific coast were reasonable, fruit and vegetables would flood the eastern markets, thus materially reducing the cost of living. Cheaper food is a big issue and there are too many starving people today to allow such terrible waste as is to be seen on California farms and orchards."

FOUR RACINE BOYS DROWN IN 2 DAYS

By United Press Leased Wire
Racine.—Four boys were drowned here during the holidays.
Leonard Nobert, 16-years-old, lost his life at noon Monday while swimming at Cedar Bend and two companions nearly perished in their attempts to save him. Seven-year-old Stanley Zaleski, it is believed, fell into Lake Michigan while walking along the breakwater pier Saturday. His body was recovered Sunday.
Erving Longmore, 13-years-old, and Floyd Carlson, 11, drowned at noon Sunday when they ventured into deep water in a gravel pit.

CIVIL WAR BREAKS OUT IN POLE RANKS

By United Press Leased Wire
Oppeln, Upper Silesia.—Polish insurgents at Cosel have mutinied, according to Italian officers here Tuesday. There was terrific fighting in the town last night. Italians on guard said it was entirely within the Polish lines.
The allied detachments believed it was an indication that the Polish movement is breaking up in the face of stiff German opposition and the threat of harsh action by the allies.
The Italians were overjoyed at the arrival of a battalion of British Monday—a portion of the famous black watch, which was given an ovation as it tramped into Oppeln with kilts swinging and bag pipes squealing.
The Britishers appeared to believe they will see action against the Poles soon and they fraternized openly with the Germans and Italians. It was noticeable that they had little to do with the French.
"We know you will rid us of the Poles," laughed women who went to the temporary barracks their arms loaded with table delicacies.

STILLMAN CASE WILL BE POSTPONED AGAIN

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Counsel in the Stillman divorce case were in conference Tuesday to determine the question of postponement of the hearing scheduled for Wednesday in Poughkeepsie.
John E. Mack, guardian of little Guy, was reported to have asked for the postponement on the grounds that pressure of other affairs would make it impossible for him to attend hearing this week.
It was denied by those closely associated with either the banker or his wife that the now contemplated postponement had anything to do with negotiations for a settlement out of court. For the present, hope of such a settlement had been given up it was said.
Miss Jeanette Martiney of Milwaukee has returned to her home after spending the weekend with Miss Hazel O'Connell, County Line-rd.

VAGRANT IS CHARGED WITH JEWEL ROBBERY

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—J. B. Smith, St. Louis, arrested here several days ago, was taken to Lake Forest, Ill., to face charges preferred in connection with a $5,000 gem robbery. Smith was arrested here on a charge of vagrancy.
He was said to have possessed a diamond bar and watch valued at $1, 500 when taken into custody. He told police a sister died in New Orleans and left him the jewelry.

BLAINE VETOS BILL TO MAKE STATE DRIER

Matheson Bill Characterized as Executive.

HITS DRY LEAGUE LOBBY

Blaine Declares Measure Is Too
Full of Red Tape to Be Effective.

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—Characterizing the Matheson prohibition enforcement bill as "weak," "indefinite and uncertain," and charging that it violates the constitution and laws of the United States, Governor John J. Blaine Monday night vetoed the measure.

The veto message will be read to the assembly at 7:30 tonight. There is little chance of the bill repassing
the two houses with the necessary two-thirds vote to override the governor's veto.

Governor Blaine requested the legislature to pass a new measure "that will be reasonable and certain in its terms."

The governor assailed the lobby maintained by the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league at the capitol in the strongest terms. He called the activities of the lobby, headed by R. P. Hutton, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, as "pernicious" and declared that if the legislature would free "itself from the sinister influence of the pernicious lobby" there would be plenty of time to pass a strong enforcement measure before adjournment.

Many Objections
The governor's objections to the bill are numerous. He said it was unnecessarily long and involved and was too much given to "red tape."
"The Matheson bill makes no penalty for drunkenness. It leaves stalls, booths, curtains, in permit places," said the governor. This condition, he pointed out, was conducive to illicit sale and consumption of liquor as well as other immoral purposes.

The governor demanded a proper bill to suppress the widespread sale of "moonshine" and indicated that Matheson bill failed to grapple with this evil properly.
A plain, definite and easily understood enforcement law is asked by the governor of the author.
The bill should conform to the Volstead act, the governor said.

POLICE ON GUARD AT MURDER TRIAL

Trouble Is Feared When Italians Face Charge of Slay-ing Paymaster.

Dedham, Mass.—A cordon of police guarded the Dedham district court
when Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti were put on trial for their lives here Tuesday.
Judge Webster Thayer presided at a trial of the men who are charged with murder of Frederick A. Farn-ett, paymaster for the Slater and Morrill Shoe company, and special Policeman Alexander Berardelli, at South Braintree in April, 1920, when the latter were shot to death and a payroll of $18,000 stolen.
The defendants were under heavy guard while attorneys, witnesses and court officials were protected by a detail of police. All persons entering the courtroom were scrutinized and questioned. Both accused men are Italian citizens and a fund of $50,000 raised by Italian societies and labor organizations will be used in their defense.
Five hundred jurors were summoned and indications Tuesday were that the jury will not be completed for several days.
Frederick K. Katzman, district attorney of Norfolk county, and Assistant District Attorney Harold Williams were in charge of the prosecution.

MEXICO WILLING TO ACCEPT U. S. TERMS

By United Press Leased Wire.
Washington.—President Obregon of Mexico will accept the American memorandum on the question of recognition as a "basis for negotiations," it was declared here Tuesday by advisers of the Mexican president.
The exchanges which now are expected to follow between the two governments will soon develop an understanding that will prompt the United States to recognize the Obregon government, it was also believed in these quarters.
The next move by Mexico, it is thought, will be a reply from President Obregon to the communication or memorandum from Secretary Hughes which was presented by George T.
Summerlin, charge of the American embassy in Mexico City. Obregon here thinks that if this is satisfactory
American recognition may be extended forthwith.

Ask Troops To Quell Riots At Green Bay

AIRPLANE WRECK DRAWS ATTENTION TO U. S. WEAKNESS

Failure to Supervise Flying Has Resulted in Numerous Disasters.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1921 by Post Pub Co.
Washington.—America's worst airplane accident, occurring within a few miles of the national capital, has served as nothing else possibly could to accentuate the careless way in which aviation is being handled. Congress heard bitter complaints about needless loss of life when the war was on but no incident has illustrated even in peace-time the looseness of control which the government maintains over the most dangerous, yet the most important, of modern means of transportation.

Ever since the close of the war,
the army aviators have been clamoring for unified control of aviation.
They have pointed out that there are no laws today governing landings, no laws regulating the use of airplanes over specified routes, no service which warns airplanes of dangerous
air currents just as the ships at sea are warned of approaching storms.

Today the army has its own aviation service, the navy has another, and the post office department has another. There is nothing to prevent the department of commerce or any other government department from purchasing planes and operating them just as is the case with manor transportation. There is today no pooling of aviation experience, no combined research, no general board which handles the whole subject of aviation any more than there is in the government anybody which has authority over cable and radio communication.

Brig-Gen. William E. Mitchell, who commanded the American aviation units in France who actually led them in battle, has publicly commented on the Saturday disaster as the direct consequence of one defect—America's aviation service—the lack of communication between a central board watching out for air currents and storms and airplanes which may happen to be in flight.

The fault of the big Eagle plane was not official. It was not necessary that the ride be taken. Indeed, anybody in the army and navy can take an airplane at any time and go anywhere. There is no ban on superfluous flying and yet many of America's best aviators have been lost on trips that need never have been taken.

An official investigation of the accident has been ordered. Unfortunately all seven passengers were killed.
There is no certain way of telling exactly what brought the plane down though military aviators today seem to think the electrical storm did the trick.

SEND MORE MONEY IS DE VALERA PLEA

London.—With the British government supposed to be protesting informally against American aid to Sinn Feiners, "President" DeValera has cabled an appeal to his friends in the United States for further aid.
"Our enemies threaten increased frightfulness hoping to crush us," said his cablegram to the Irish Reconciliation association.

"With your support we defy them.
Liberty shall not perish here."
The message was said to have been called out by British preparations for the use of still greater force in suppressing the Sinn Feiners. It was reported that one measure will be shutting off of all military supplies from outsiders. It was said the British navy would be utilized in patrolling the Irish coast to prevent the smuggling of arms from American to other vessels. The British were also said to object to the sending of great funds for Irish relief. The reports here said that Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador at Washington, already had broached the subject in a series of informal conferences with government officials.

WOMAN VICTIMIZES WINNIPEG MERCHANTS

Winnipeg, Man.—Mabel Howard,
St. Louis, Mo., was taken into custody here Monday by city detectives on several charges of fraud.
Miss Howard is 25 years of age and during her residence of about a month in the city she is alleged to have "put it over" on about half a dozen storekeepers and one of the leading banks. The biggest amount she is said to have "extorted" is $225. Miss Howard had evidently extravagant ideas too, for she stayed at some of the leading hotels and made an impressive appearance.

FOILED BY COLLEGE PRESIDENT

G. W. Duvall, Jr., football star of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., obtained a license to marry Zaida Sherman, a student at William Woods College, also in Fulton. But President Serena of the girl's school thought Miss Sherman should consult her parents. So he put her in an auto and speeded her homeward. Duvall pursued in a taxi, but a tire blew up and he lost the race.

HUBBY SAYS PEGGY WAS EXTRAVAGANT

J. Stanley Joyce Declares Wife Was Profligate With Money and Men.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—J. Stanley Joyce, Chicago millionaire turned another barrage of scandal on "Peggy" Joyce, his actress-wife, Tuesday.
The third millionaire husband of the charming Peggy filed an answer to the petition of his wife for divorce.
The luxury of Peggy as a wife cost Joyce exactly $1,338,316.32, he said in his petition.

Joyce's side to the story charges Peggy with gross extravagance in buying everything she laid her pretty blue eyes upon.

From commonplace money matters,
the husband turned to men.

He reiterated his charge that Peggy flirted about with celebrities on both sides of the Atlantic.
He charges that Peggy and a "stage aunt," named Ida M. Smart—
"whom she associated with in her amorous undertakings, conspired together to cause him to become engaged to Peggy Hopkins at Colorado Springs in the fall of 1919 when she was still the wife of Philbrick Hopkins."

PIER COLLAPSES

By United Press Leased Wire
Ashland, Wis.—Excitement reigned

and children, participating in the Memorial day ceremonies, collapsed and slid into Ashland bay.
Forty persons fell into the bay but no lives were lost.

NO HOPE FOR TAX BILL UNTIL FALL

Tariff Makers Run Into Snags Which Are Delaying Their Work.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The main purpose of the special session of congress was to revise the tariff and lighten the tax burdens, but, according to conservative estimates Tuesday these tasks will not be completed before late next fall. The house ways and means committee which has been framing the permanent tariff bill for two months, has struck several big snags, and hopes that the measure would be reported to the house by June 1 have been blasted completely. Chairman Fordney now thinks that the bill may be ready by June 15 but other members of the committee doubt if it will be reported by July 1.
The house will fight over it for at least a month. The last big tariff bill required five weeks of debate before it was sent to the senate. By Aug. 1, both houses probably will be complaining of the Washington heat and it will be difficult to prevent a recess of from four to six weeks. It is admitted that little work can be done by the ways and means committee toward modifying the tax laws while the tariff bill is on the floor. The committee may stay in session during August for this purpose, but even then it would be most difficult to pass both the tax and the tariff measures by December 1, the opening of the regular session. In fact some members believe congress will be showing good speed as the result of its past slow progress if the new taxes are ready to go into effect January 1.

Horsewhip Preacher For Beating His Wife

By United Press Leased Wire
Newburgh, N. Y.—Residents of Marlboro, continuing to interest themselves in the marital affairs of the Rev. Buck White, are threatening to administer a second beating to the radical agitator and former pastor.
"We ought to beat him up right,"
one of the leaders of the town's younger element was quoted as saying.
"The others didn't do as good a job as we will. They didn't have the courage."
He referred to a party of 12 who horsewhipped, then tarred and feathered White a week ago last night because his young French bride who left him, told neighbors that he had struck her. The girl who married

White in Paris last month and lived with him but five days on his farm near Marlboro, has started suit for annulment of their marriage, on the ground of fraud, in that he is alleged to have failed to inform her and her family of his radical ideas.
White, denying he ever struck his wife, declared she is the victim of an illusion regarding America common to all French girls—that life in this country is one of all play and no work. He will not oppose the annulment.
Villagers threatened White when he drove into Marlboro late Monday his flivver to do some marketing. It was reported that they showered him with over ripe vegetables as he left, but White maintained he knew nothing of this.

Rioting Grows Out of Strikes at Three Green Bay Papermills.

TWO MEN BADLY INJURED

One Man Is Expected to Die as Result of Cutting Affray Late Monday.

BULLETIN

By United Press Leased Wire
Green Bay, Wis.—Rioting broke out
Tuesday when strikers at the John Hoberg Paper mills prevented strikebreakers employed by the company from going to work.

The clash followed a cutting affray in which Ignas Tatowski, a which Ignas Tatowski, a aid badly injured.

Madison, Wis.—Troops to quell labor disturbances at Green Bay were requested of Governor John J. Blaine Tuesday by District Attorney Carl
Young of Brown county.

Governor Blaine, at his home in Boscobel, ordered an immediate investigation of the trouble and announced his intention of dispatching troops in case there was a necessity for them in the preservation of law and order.

Labor difficulties are the outgrowth of a strike of all employees of three big paper mills at Green Bay.

Sheriff Overpowered
The request was made after Sheriff Nicholas Ryan of Brown county and a force of armed deputies were overpowered at the gates of the Northern Paper company mill this morning.

Strikers forming a large mob, pushed aside the sheriff and his men and barred the gates so none of the strikebreakers employed by the company could enter the mill.

These tactics forced the mill to close down. Attempts on the part of the sheriff and his deputies to break the lines of pickets placed about the mill
by the strikers proved futile.

At noon Tuesday Sheriff Ryan telephoned District Attorney Young he could no longer be responsible for the maintenance of order and urged Young to insist that the governor dispatch troops to Green Bay at once.
The outbreak followed the knifing of two union pickets Monday by a strike-breaker. One of the pickets is believed to be fatally wounded.

The strike has been in progress for two months, following the announcement made by the three paper mills of the city of a 17 per cent reduction in the wage scale. The John Hoberg company mill and the Green Bay Fibre company mills were forced to close down, but the Northern Paper company mill, employing a force of 400, was able to continue operation by the use of strikebreakers.

Blain Awaits Reports
Governor Blaine is believed to be speeding from Boscobel to Madison by auto to take charge of the situation. It is understood at his office he will call several Green Bay men to confirm the statements of the sheriff that the situation is beyond the control of the authorities before troops are ordered out.

Companies of the national guard at Appleton and Neenah will probably be used in case the governor decides state intervention necessary.
National guard officers here said late this afternoon that no orders to mobilize had been received. They are ready for almost instant mobilization, however.

Two Men Badly Hurt

Green Bay.—Hundreds of men made idle by strikes which have tied up three papermills here were in a threatening mood Tuesday following riots Monday which resulted in serious injury to two men, one of whom may die. District Attorney Carl Young and Sheriff Nic Ryan have appealed to Governor J. J. Blaine to send troops here to assist in maintaining order. It is feared that the slightest trouble will fan the smouldering anger into the white heat of riot.
Ignas Tatowski, one of the two men knifed in Monday night's rioting is not expected to live. His wrist arteries were slashed, his scalp cut and his chest was punctured.

The other man injured in the cutting affray is Dennis Fitzgerald, a labor leader. He is now recovering but his injuries are serious. It is believed one man is responsible for the cutting. A suspect was arrested Tuesday morning but the police have refused to divulge his name. It is said the police have little evidence to support their belief that he is the guilty man.

Three Mills Closed

The trouble is an outgrowth of the strike which started in March when the Northern Paper Mills announced a reduction in wages. Today is the first time since the strike that the mill has been closed down entirely.
The Green Bay Fibre and Paper Co., and the John Hoberg Co. plants also are closed because of the strike. The Hoberg company had planned to resume operations this morning but the mill was not opened as a result of Monday's trouble.
More trouble is expected late this afternoon when the sheriff is expected to accede to a demand for an inspection of the Northern Paper Mills in an effort to learn if any strikers are enployed in the plant.

THREE SERVICES AT CEMETERIES FOR HEROIC DEAD

G. A. R., American Legion and Reeve Circle Conduct Ceremonies.

Three separate Memorial services were held Monday afternoon at Riverbank cemetery. One was conducted by the Grand Army of the Republic at the G. A. R. plot near the center of the cemetery, the J. T. Reeve circle conducted its program on the river bank and the Oney Johnston Post held services at the legion plot on the dividing line between St. Joseph and Riverside cemeteries. The procession separated into the three divisions at the entrance to Riverside and the three groups marched directly to their respective places. Services were held simultaneously.

Services at the G. A. R. plot commenced with the singing of "Tenting Tonight" by a double quartet. The Rev. J. L. Menzner chaplain offered prayer, and Dr. A. W. Kanouse read the ritualistic service recalling the valor of the comrades and encouraging the patriotism of loyal American citizens. Two groups of flower girls dressed in white were led in and out among the graves which they covered with flower petals. "The Vacant Chair" was sung by a double quartet, after which Mr. Menzner pronounced the benediction. The program was concluded with the three volleys fired by the firing squad of the American legion after which "Taps" was sounded.

Honor Naval Heroes
A boat beautifully decorated with evergreens and flags played an important role in the Memorial services of the J. T. Reeve circle which were held on the river bank. Six little flower girls occupied seats in the boat and strewed flowers on the river in honor of the heroes. Prayer was offered by the Rev. L. B. Wood after which "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by a quartet. The ritualistic service for sailors was read by the Rev. L. B. Wood.

"We are here assembled beside this flowing river, rushing to the sea, to pay tribute to the sailor-soldier defenders of our country, to honor the memory of those illustrious sailors and marines, who sank beneath the waters blue in their struggle to save our glorious union," Dr. Wood said. "It is with ancient pride that we make mention of their valor and self-sacrifice, whose undying memory speaks to us wherever the stars and stripes wave out upon the breezes the emblem of the free."

"We are thankful for men like John Paul Jones, Decatur, Perry, Farragut, Dewey and of all the rest, the admirals, officers and men who have been and ever will be the first defense of our beloved nation. Undying is their fame."

Thankful we are and ever must be that in times of peril from forces within and from forces across the seas, there were men, fired with the true spirit of patriotism, who were willing enough, wise enough and strong enough in the providence of God, to save the honor of the seas and the freedom of the world.

"No marble monument, no costly sarcophagus marks the resting place. The wild waves of the ocean that they loved sang their requiem. Memorial day would be incomplete without due and adequate recognition of our incalculable debt to the men who went down to the sea in ships, who made our navy, the pride of America, who never knew the word 'surrender'."

"Therefore, let us lift our hearts in gratitude and prayer to Almighty God while our chaplain voices the patriotic and religious feelings that are now swelling in our breasts."

A wreath was cast on the water as part of the service. In conclusion the quartet sang "Beneath the Laurels." Commander Charles Baker of the Oney Johnston Post of American Legion gave a short talk on "Sacrifice" from the memorial service of the ritual at the ceremonies conducted by the post at the legion plot. Lieutenant W. B. McPheters pronounced the benediction. Flowers were sprinkled on the graves by Sergeant Arthur Banks after which a salute was fired by the firing squad of Co. D 127 Infantry.

Mr. Baker said in part: "Again our nation has assembled to honor its heroic dead. A thousand battles on land and sea echo the glory of their valiant deeds. Under the quiet sod, or beneath the murmuring waves, their bodies sleep in peace. But in the destinies of men, their souls go marching on. Because of them our lives are free. Because of them our nation lives. Because of them the whole world is blest."

"They fought for us; for us they fell. Now with one accord in deep reverence, we do them honor. Let us not remember them in anguish, they would not wish our pity. Let us remember them in honor, for they are to be honored. Nor for their sakes can we forget the desolated ones they left behind. Our tears, our words of sympathy can not bring back the comfort of those loving hands, the music of those voices stilled. Only the solemn pride of having given more than all the rest is theirs who lived to weep. But all the world, because of what they gave, is debtor to them."

Take a spoonful in a glass of cold water whenever you feel bloated, head-achy or constipated. "Epsomade Salts" is the much talked of discovery of the American Epsom Association.

Miss Norva Sidwell Tells How Cuticura Healed Her Brother

"Eruption of the skin broke out in small blisters on my brother's body. The blisters would break and larger ones would come until his body was a solid mass of blisters. He was cross and fretful and couldn't stand any clothing to be on his body, and he irritated the breaking out by rubbing it. This troubled us for two months and we tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment with good results. When we had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment he was healed." CAREFUL DRIVING RESULTS IN FEW AUTO ACCIDENTS

Lawrence Newland Hurt When Struck While Alighting
From Street Car.

Almost everybody that owned an automobile had it in use over the holiday period, but Appleton was fortunate in having few accidents, considering the amount of traffic.

Lawrence Newland, 407 Outagamie-st., was injured on the right hand and hip Monday afternoon while alighting from a street car at the corner of College-ave. and Oneida-st. As he stepped to the pavement he was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Adeline Winter, 737 State-st. It is said that Miss Winter did not stop at the time but made her identity known to the police. The young man was taken to a physician's office. His injuries were not of a serious nature. 163 NEW HOMES ARE AID TO SHORTAGE

More Building Has Been Done
Here Than Public Is Aware of in 1920 and 1921.

More is being done in Appleton than most are aware of to relieve the shortage of houses. Most well-informed men would venture that at least 50 houses were built last year, and some said there might be 75. The actual number was 110, and this season will run close second with 53 houses already underway.

These facts were obtained by the postoffice through a survey made by mail carriers. The number of residences and apartments was ascertained and the carriers also took note of the building which was being done here. Almost twice as much building was done in the Fifth ward last year as in any other part of the city. This year the Third and Fifth wards are in the lead.

The distribution of building in wards for last year and the present, according to the number of houses under construction was:

"NIGHT RIDER" CASE IS POSTPONED UNTIL FALL

Because of the illness of Attorney Henry Cochems, Milwaukee, trial of the case of Mrs. Lillian A. Black, Grand Chute, against Dr. J. D. O'Connor, Dr. A. E. Rector, Stephen D. Ballist and others, was postponed from today until Sept. 26. Judge Parks was in the city ready to try the case when it was learned a postponement was necessary. Mrs. Black is suing to recover damages because, she alleges, her husband's mind was ruined by an alleged night visit to her home during a Liberty loan campaign.

Bushes growing too close to the roadside caused Walter Joyce to damage his automobile considerably Sunday afternoon. Just south of Kiel, while he was on his way to Elkhart Lake, when the Joyce machine collided with a car driven by Fred Stof. The latter automobile appeared in the road suddenly, side-swiped the Joyce car, damaging the fenders, lamps and other parts of both cars. Mr. Joyce was able to drive his machine back to Appleton under its own power. None of the occupants of the cars was injured.

While Peter Kornely's automobile was parked in the business section of Fond du Lac Monday afternoon, some unidentified driver ran into its rear end, causing minor damage.

MY FIRST JOB

J. E. DENNISON,
Boys work secretary, Y. M. C. A.

Twenty-one years ago I was employed in a sash and door factory at Merrill. That was my first job and for it I received 45 cents a day. My work consisted of driving pins into the corners of the sashes. Now, I think, the corners are glued and nailed with metal nails. But then they were merely held by wooden pins.

The sashes were clamped together and a man would come along and bore a hole through the corner. I used to follow with the pins and a hammer.

Henry Walter of Milwaukee, formerly of Appleton, was here Monday calling on friends.

Do This Tonight

Watch the quick effects—see the change in a week

Present this coupon to your dealer. He will give you a delightful ten-day test of a new teeth-cleaning method which millions are employing.

Watch the effects, quick, pleasant and conspicuous. Watch the new luster that comes. In ten days let your mirror tell you the way to pretty teeth.

Leading dentists everywhere advise this method now. You will see and feel the reasons when you make this test.

End the dingy film

The chief purpose is to fight film. This viscous coat, which you can feel, causes dingy teeth and also most tooth troubles.

Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The old ways of brushing did not end it. So film-coats night and day threaten serious damage.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. All these troubles have been constantly increasing. Despite the daily brushing with old methods, very few escaped them.

Now you can fight it

Dental science, after long research, has found ways to fight that film. Able authorities have proved them effective. Now leading dentists everywhere advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in Pepsodent, the new-day, scientific tooth paste. Millions of people now use it, and the use is fast spreading the world over.

That is the dentifrice we urge you to try. Your druggist has a free tube for you. Enjoy its effects for ten days, then judge them for yourself.

Also starch and acids

Modern diet makes other things essential. And those essentials are embodied in this scientific tooth paste.

Each use of Pepsodent multiplies the salivary flow. That is Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's agent for neutralizing acids which attack the teeth.

At your store this week

An ideal diet would do these same things, but few people get it. So dental science now needs the tooth paste to bring these desired effects.

Pepsodent will daily bring you five great benefits which the old ways did not bring. Together they mean a new era in teeth cleaning.

Men's tobacco stains

Men who smoke stain these film-coats with tobacco. The use of Pepsodent brings them conspicuous effects.

Food stains with women make these film-coats dingy. The glistening teeth seen everywhere now show how Pepsodent removes them.

But children need Pepsodent most. Their teeth are most subject to film and starch attacks. Very few escape them. Dentists advise that they use Pepsodent from the time the first tooth appears.

Watch teeth whiten

The results of Pepsodent are quickly seen and felt. No user can long doubt them. A book we send explains the reasons for them. A very short test will convince you that this new way is essential.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Watch the other good effects.

Then you will see and feel and know that Pepsodent is necessary. You will realize that old methods were not right. And this discovery may bring life-long benefits both to you and yours. Present this coupon to your dealer this week. Cut it out now.

WATCHFUL WAITING VS. INTERVENTION

It is greatly to be hoped that the reports from Washington, that our relations with Mexico are approaching a settlement, are not premature. Such a settlement would involve recognition of the Obregon government upon the basis of its satisfying our legitimate claims and giving us certain guarantees for the future. The policy of our government seems to be, so far as it can be gathered from press reports, not to impose humiliating conditions upon Mexico as the price of recognition, but to insist upon certain fundamental principles which, if finally agreed upon, will form the basis for permanent peace and friendly relations between the two countries. This is as it should be.

Mexico on its part can have no reason, consonant with friendly purposes, for not accepting those responsibilities which compel her to respect American rights and interests in that country and to adjudicate differences in accordance with fixed obligations and the practices of international law. The United States on its part desires only peaceful intercourse with Mexico. It does not desire to exploit Mexico politically or economically. When Mexico comes to understand this there will be less danger of friction. While both countries have much to gain materially and morally by getting together, it would be worse than useless to reach an agreement based upon expediency and partial understanding. It may take longer to build enduring foundations, but they are the only kind worth building.

The evidences from both Washington and Mexico City that indicate a practical and thorough agreement must be gratifying to the great majority of people in this country, who have always opposed intervention, even at those times when the chaos south of the Rio Grande tried their patience sorely and when American lives and property there suffered at the hands of bandits. Regardless of the clamor of politicians and the heated demands for the use of force, the people have resolutely stood against war, which is the reason and the only reason the hot-heads could not compel the government to take up arms. Public opinion has looked confidently forward to the day when out of the welter of Mexican anarchy a government would finally emerge capable of really governing and worthy of our respect and recognition. War would have left in its train racial antagonism for generations to come. It would have embittered Mexicans against us as never before.

As events now seem to be shaping themselves, who will say that the policy of "watchful waiting," as opposed to the policy of intervention, has not justified itself? The prospective settlement, if it materializes, will afford an example which certain European nations, that fly at each others throat on the slightest provocation, may emulate with profit to themselves and in the interest of the future peace of the world.

AUTHORS FOR FOREIGN SERVICE

Richard Washburn Child has been appointed ambassador to Italy to succeed Robert Underwood Johnson, who in turn succeeded Thomas Nelson Page. Three authors in succession have now been appointed to that great diplomatic post, and several others have received Italian consular appointments before and after President Lincoln sent William Dean Howells to Venice. The eagerness of American authors to secure government appointments in Italy requires no explanation. That beautiful land of sunshine, artistic atmosphere, historic background and picturesque population offers unusual inspiration to the writer as well as to the artist, and of course American authors receiving diplomatic or consular appointments there expect to have time to continue their professional work.

From the author's point of view it is a delightful arrangement, but it is more than likely that the Italians, though too courteous to complain, would prefer to receive trained American diplomats and business men, particularly in times such as the present when Italy is straining every nerve to regain her economic strength after the great drain of war and the depression of post-war troubles. Although Italy is par excellence the land of poetry and the arts, its thinking and constructive elements are now chiefly interested in coal, iron, food and foreign trade. Unlike England, however, the United States has never sought systematically to develop a trained diplomatic and consular service, and possibly a modern author would be able to render as satisfactory service as four-fifths of the Americans who are sent to fill such government positions abroad.

WHY DISARMAMENT MUST COME

The Danish Research society has compiled figures on the social results of the World war which are worth reading and digesting. According to these figures there are chargeable to the war, directly or indirectly, approximately 70,000,000 human lives. This estimate is obtained by adding to those killed in battle and dead from disease, the loss in population due to decrease in birth rate and increase in death rate among civilians in the warring countries.

The financial burden which the world has taken on since 1914 is, roughly $350,000,000,000. One of the prime effects of this enormous debt, which represents almost wholly economic loss, is that it enforces such heavy taxation in many countries as to retard the normal processes of material and individual life. Eleven out of the twelve European nations involved, even with tremendous taxation, are spending beyond their incomes. A number of them are unable to raise sufficient taxes to meet their running expenses. For the first time in history a nation, dismembered Austria, has gone into the hands of a receiver. Other nations are on the verge of bankruptcy.

The World Peace Foundation of Boston uses these facts and figures, in connection with the budgets of various nations for armaments, in support of its objective, which is to bring about disarmament. The Foundation very properly points out that America, because of her dominant position in the world, should take the initiative in bringing about a conference to consider disarmament. The necessity for an agreement among the nations to stop their insane competition for military power is so great, considering the destruction and burdens caused by the World war, that neither politicians nor government can long ignore it. If they do, the people will take things into their own hands and put in power governments which will obey this plain mandate of common sense.

The senate last week, without a dissenting vote, adopted the Borah amendment to the naval supply bill requesting the president to call a three-power conference to discuss reductions in naval armaments. When the Borah proposal was first made it was vigorously opposed in various quarters. It has taken many weeks to bring the senate to a proper sense of its position before the nation and the world, but public sentiment made itself felt and the politicians capitulated. Similar opposition is expected in the house but the politicians there will also surrender. President Harding's course is perfectly clear. He should exert the full influence of his administration to secure the prompt passage of the amendment by the house, and should lose no time in calling Great Britain and Japan into conference when the bill authorizing this action becomes a law. Had congress not responded to the popular demand, the president would have been justified in summoning such a conference on his own responsibility, provided it could be done constitutionally.

Not only the world, but the United States as well, must have relief from military madness. More than ninety per cent of all money raised for national purposes in this country go for wars past and future. The time has come when this absurdity must cease. Civilized peoples are bent upon having peace and the instruments of peace. They know this will not be so long as nations keep on piling up instruments of war.

AUTOBOYOGAPHY—CHAP. XI

In the Hay
The trouble with a lot of these poor little under-size, pale, sickly, nervous, irritable kids is that they don't get enough sleep. It beats all how some parents and aunts and things seem to think a kid can be up half the night and still keep well and strong. There ought to be a heavy fine exacted from any grownup who keeps a kid under six years of age up after eight o'clock at night. Dad says half of the so-called nervousness in young children is directly due to late hours and insufficient sleep. He always took pains to see that I was punctilious about hitting the hay. My wassail ditty was "Hay, Hay, Hay, and a Bottle of Milk." And there's nothing nervous about me but the neighbors. The degree of civility involved in keeping a baby in arms up after sundown at night is about equivalent to sitting at a grownup's bedside and shooting firecrackers every ten minutes all night.

Kids grow chiefly while asleep. Give 'em time. A tired mother is a cross one. Let the kids hit the hay right after supper, and keep mother young, healthy and pretty so she can be pals with them when they are growing up. Night-hawking is a mighty bad habit for every one concerned. The natural, healthful and most restful time to sleep is right after you have filled your stomach with good food. Dad and I and our dog Bob can prove that any time. So eat, sleep and be happy. The time a kid passes in oblivion in the hay is building time. What's your building program this year?

Here is my sleeping schedule to date, and it is a good one, for father says I have always slept according to Holt, and Holt, father thinks, still understands kids pretty well while they're asleep:

First 48 hours of my life: Constant semi-coma, rousing only occasionally to cry a bit.

Next three weeks: Sleeping twenty-four hours out of every twenty-four, waking only from hunger, discomfort or pain.

Up to age of six months: Sleeping seventeen hours out of each twenty-four, waking intervals being only half an hour to one and one-half hours long.

At age of one year: Sleeping fifteen hours out of each twenty-four, about twelve hours at night and two naps of 1 1/2 hours each in the day time.

At age of two years: Sleeping fourteen hours daily. Naps forenoon and afternoon.

At age of four years: Sleeping thirteen hours. One good nap each afternoon.

At age of six years: Sleeping twelve hours. Afternoon nap discontinued when I entered school.

I am now seven years old and still doing a twelve hour turn in the hay. Father says we will make it eleven hours when I become nine years old, and ten hours when I become twelve years old. Ten it will remain until I am sixteen.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Crying Baby

Can a boy baby be ruptured from crying? (Mrs. R. L.)

ANSWER.—No, nor a girl baby. If there is a rupture (breach or hernia) present at birth—and most ruptures are congenital—it may not become manifest until weeks or months after birth, when it is noticed while the baby is straining or crying. But the straining or crying is not to be considered the cause. The cause is congenital defect of closure of naturally weak places (as at the navel, or in the groin), and no one can explain why such a defect occurs in certain instances, any more than we can explain why certain infants are born with one or both feet incompletely developed (club foot). In many cases congenital groin hernia does not manifest itself until youth or adult life.

Twin Beds for Health

Is it unhealthy for a child of four years to sleep with a grandparent aged 68? The elderly person is quite well. (Mrs. F.)

ANSWER.—Yes. It is unhealthy for any one to sleep with another person, because the sleeping partner usually disturbs one's rest, and transfers any infectious or communicable disease he or she may happen to have. Twin beds for health. Separate rooms are always best.

Removing Warts

Kindly tell me what will remove warts. (D. M. H.)
ANSWER.—The safest and cleanest method is by the scalpel in the physician's hands. This is always best when warts are present about the face or on the hands, as the hands may disappear after several successive paintings with tincture of iodine (the whole skin region involved) at intervals of five days, if the skin does not become too irritated. It is unwise, unsafe and generally unsatisfactory to use caustics or acids on warts. This lotion has been found successful in removing large numbers of warts spread over the hands—I would not advise its use on the face unless under medical supervision:

Burnt lime 4 drams
Sublimed sulphur 1 ounce
Distilled water 10 ounces
Boil together, constantly stirring, until the mixture measures six ounces, then filter. Apply this lotion to the skin, and wash it off again after two hours, every night for a week. It sets up a mild inflammatory reaction, and when the skin has become slightly inflamed the lotion should be discontinued.

A New Peril To Swindlers

By Frederic J. Haskin

New York City.—The scalp of New York is now after the state of the fake stock promoter. By a new law, known as the Martin anti-fraud act, recently signed by the governor, the attorney general of the state is authorized to investigate the activities of all persons or concerns suspected of foisting fraudulent securities upon the trusting public. Said suspicious proving correct, he is further authorized to make arrests and proceed with the prosecution of the offenders!

According to the latest estimate of the federal trade commission, $500,000,000 is taken from the American public every year in the sale of worthless stocks. Clearly, the public needs to be protected from its own inability to find an angle to be considered. This enormous sum, which is lost to the public, is also lost to legitimate business. It represents large numbers of small savings accounts hastily withdrawn from banks, as well as the waste of much capital that could be used to float legitimate enterprises. Swindling is becoming so successful that it is having a disastrous effect upon the business of reputable concerns.

In New York City this state of affairs is particularly apparent. In the old days when the famous Inspector Byrnes maintained his so-called "dead line" at Fulton-st., beyond which few crooks dared pass, the large financial houses of Wall-st. operated in dignified seclusion. Their operations might not be always regular, but they were, at least, in a faded memory, and the old guard of the stock exchange finds itself surrounded on every side by small fraudulent concerns who launch their fake schemes at slight expense and pick up most of their easy money along the curb.

Legitimate brokerage houses of the district must sit by and see some of their best clients snapped up by promoters who have nothing behind them but a smooth talk but worthless paper. It would be bad enough if the swindlers dealt with small sums and were content to fleece the very small investor of his insignificant savings and life insurance, but they are not so considerate. Much of their business is transacted with the professional classes—lawyers, doctors, well-established merchants, successful business women and even bankers. For it is a curious fact well known in Wall-st. that the easiest victims are usually those who have made a distinct success in their own particular line of work.

The Hight Art of Fraud.
There have always been plenty of laws against swindling in New York, but great difficulty has always been encountered in enforcing them. Swindling is an ancient art and has acquired much valuable technique through the centuries. Thus, over and over again it has been shown that even though everything may point to a fake stockholder's guilt, it is impossible to obtain the necessary proofs to convict him.

For example, most of the stock-selling that goes on in the polished underworld of Wall-st. is done by means of the telephone. Not that there are not many fraudulent firms still boldly using the mails, but the telephone is largely replacing the bulk of mail order business. Nothing definite can be pinned on a voice over the wire, and a long distance call receives attention where nothing else would. Promises made over the wire are not to be reproached in court—unless someone has a dictaphone about.

The following bitter experience of a New York business man, the head of a large importing house, will illustrate the deftness with which the phone salesman works:
The importer was greeted on the telephone one morning a few months ago, by a pleasant, cultured voice,

A Fact!

The men who patronize this store never have tire trouble.
for there is nothing about our service to tire of.
Could you ever become bored by a genuine pleasant greeting when you open the door—
Do you mean to say that good qualities and sound values would ever get on your nerves?
Well, that's why this store goes on and forward every day—because our friends never find us monotonous in mood—stale in style or backsliding in duty.

PROGRAM SPOILED BY MISTAKE IN ORDER FOR PARADE

Only a Few Persons Hear Memorial Day Addresses at Kaukauna.

Kaukauna. — The city's Memorial day celebration fell rather flat Monday when only 80 persons assembled at the auditorium to take part in the exercises planned in honor of the city's dead soldiers. Through some misunderstanding, the soldiers who had turned out so well to march in the parade, demobilized at the library instead of marching to the hall and as a result, not a soldier appeared at the exercises. The band which was to have given a musical program was also dismissed at the library instead of being told to assemble at the auditorium.

Prof. W. L. Crowe of Lawrence college, was the speaker of the afternoon. Prof. L. G. Schussman introduced the speaker and gave an opening talk. He expressed his regret that there was not a larger representation of the 6,000 people living in Kaukauna at the program.

"I have been noticing for several years with increasing alarm, and I think I speak for others," said Mr. Schussman, "that the soldiers who fought in the Civil war for the maintenance of our country under one flag are dwindling away until now they can almost be counted upon the fingers of the hand. I can hardly believe that when they are all gone, the day which we observe yearly will mean less and less to the American people. I can hardly believe that the time will come when our country will have forgotten the great sacrifices of those heroic dead."

Lincoln's Gettysburg address was given by Harold Derus and Logan's Memorial day orders were read by Charles Peters of the Park school.

Miss Mabel Richardson gave a vocal selection and Miss Norma Look rendered a piano solo.

Relief Party. A covered dish party will be held by the Relief party for members and Odd Fellows Tuesday evening in Odd Fellow hall. Old fashioned games will be played.

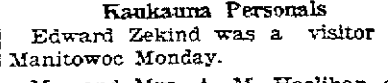

Attend Convention. Esther Hussey, Edna Ruff, Mabel Peters, John Hale and Carl Hansen autoed to Marinette Saturday to attend an Epworth league convention. They returned Sunday evening.

Kaukauna Personal. Edward Zekind was a visitor in Manitowoc Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoolihan and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Voller of Milwaukee, spent the holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoolihan.

GREEN BAY SCENE OF STRIKE RIOTS

Two Men Are Seriously Injured in Cutting Affray on Saturday.

Green Bay.—Following a cutting affray which may result in the death of Ignas Tatowski and Dennis Fitzgerald, the police and sheriff's office responded to a riot call late on Monday, after a clash between pickets and men said to be strike breakers employed by the Northern Paper mills. Between fifteen and twenty deputy sheriffs and policemen surrounded the paper mill district but at a late hour no arrests were made.

It was said the cutting was done by one man. Outgoing trains are being watched, it being reported the assailant had eluded the net. Both injured men were rushed to a hospital.

According to Dr. O. A. Stenison, Fitzgerald has a fair chance for recovery, but Tatowski's condition is extremely critical. His wrist arteries were severed, his scalp cut clear across, and his chest wall punctured in three places. He is weakened by loss of blood and according to hospital authorities there is grave danger of infection. Fitzgerald received six cuts, one eighteen inches long from shoulder to elbow and clear to the bone. He also received cuts on the left leg and several arteries were severed.

Monday's clash is the most serious of a series of disorders that have marked the strike which has been in progress several weeks.

Healthy Mother Merry Children Happy Home

TO maintain a happy home the housewife must keep in good health. Her duties are many and various, and it seems as if every other member of the family depended very much on her.

"Where is my hat?" cries the boy.

"What did you do with my coat?" asks the daughter.

"I can't find any handkerchiefs," yells the husband.

The housewife is usually the advisor and general manager of the family.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women to maintain a happy home by keeping them in good health.

Bloomington, Ill.—"I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a wonderful sight of good. I was never very strong and female trouble kept me weak so that I had no interest for my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or clean up a room without raging with pain. I would rub my back with alcohol and it would ease for a few hours, but after I had taken three bottles of Vegetable Compound my aches began to gradually leave me. Now I am as strong and healthy as any woman and I give my thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my health."—Mrs. J. A. McQuirry, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.

Dante, So. Dakota.—"I would have pains and cramps every month until I could hardly stand it and could not do my work at all at that time and often had to go to bed. I went to a physician, but he did not do me much good and said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspaper and thought I would give it a trial. Now I feel lots better and don't have to give up and go to bed, and can do all my work. You may use these facts as a testimonial, and I will answer with pleasure all letters I receive, and you may be sure I will praise your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. ARTHUR J. KADE, Box 71, Dante, South Dakota.

MUST RETURN TO PRINCIPLES WHICH MADE U. S. GREAT

Roy P. Wilcox Denounces Extreme Paternalism of Government.

There is a strange tendency today to drift away from the fundamental ideas that men fought and died for. The American government was developed on the idea that it should serve the people, but our people are drifting slowly back to the obsolete idea of the supremacy of the state; that our freedom rests with the state and not with the individual.

This was stated by Hon. Roy P. Wilcox, Eau Claire, in his Memorial day address in Lawrence Memorial chapel Monday afternoon before a large audience. The former state senator reviewed the principles upon which American government was founded, pointing out that this commonwealth was ruled differently than any other, especially in that the right of life comes before government. He urged the necessity of individual responsibility and a return to the teachings of Christ if America was to continue to occupy her place of supremacy.

Mayor J. A. Hawes presided as president of the day. Music was furnished by the Ninth Regiment band and by Mrs. A. L. Brigham at the organ. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. L. Menzner and "Logan's Order No. 11" was read by Dr. A. W. Kanouse. Joseph Koffend, Jr., delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Several selections were rendered by a double quartet consisting of Miss Maud Harwood, Miss Verna Hilker, Mrs. E. E. Dunn, Mrs. M. H. Small, Robert Potter, R. H. Starkey, C. E. Forsman and Fred S. Wheeler.

Loss Family Touch
"There is a tendency to shirk responsibility," said Mr. Wilcox. "We are too willing to pass to the government the things the individual ought to do himself. Our children are taught in the kindergarten by strangers; taught to play by strangers; they are away in the evening; their parents are not sure whether they are at the municipal movie or enjoying a plunge in the municipal swimming pool. The parent and child are strangers. They seldom meet. Father goes before they are up in the morning and they meet for a few moments at meals. In the evening the parents put the children to bed or send them somewhere, and they go to a movie or go bounding over the state highways. The individual gets to be a cog in the machinery, trying to scrape together enough to pay the taxes to keep these things up."

"This is a bad element in our civilization—the tendency to rely on some other agency for what we should do ourselves. What has become of the old days when the family gathered around the table in the evening while the children studied their lessons and the parents helped them solve their problems? A girl's body was taken from the river in one of our larger cities a short time ago and 200 mothers came to the morgue to see if it was their girl. Not one of these knew where their daughter had been the night before. Our parents need to be warned to do these duties themselves if they are to be true to the responsibility of America to individuals."

With the armistice already two years in the past, peace seems harder to bear than war, the speaker said. The only cure is to get back to religion; to take Christ into everyday life. Patent philosophies and political perunas will never solve the problem. People must get back to the old ideas of hard work and must stop saying the fundamental ideas of the past are old stuff, he said. There must be a return to thrift, toil and sacrifice if America is to be kept in its place.

"These are the things men fought for," said Mr. Wilcox. "We cannot add one single ounce or element to the glory that belongs to them. The burning question is: Shall we in some small sense be worthy of the sacrifices they made? They are secure from every care on fame's eternal camping ground."

Spectators Had To Be Told To Remove Their Hats

There was no clattering of horse's hoofs on the pavement during the parade Memorial day. For the first time horses were dispensed with by the marshal of the day and his aides who marched at the head of their respective divisions.

"Hats off to the flag!" shouted one of the officers of the American legion as the legion turned south on Morrison-st. The sidewalk was filled with men whose hats were apparently frozen to their heads until the officer's voice rang out. The veterans of the civil war received in the parade came from a group of young ladies on the steps and in front of All Saints church. It was a spontaneous outburst and was so appreciated by the old soldiers that they uncovered their heads. The applause continued while the American legion was passing.

There was a long gap between the first and second divisions in the parade by the time the first division reached Lawrence Memorial chapel. The twenty-four members of the George D. Eggleston Post formed the head of the second division and was unable to step as lively as members of the military band and Co. D. As it was, several old soldiers whose ages range from 75 to over 80 years were about "all in." Automobiles were provided for them in going to the cemetery.

Memorial observances have changed in order to keep pace with the growth of the city. Thirty years ago the exercises were held in the little park opposite the present Congregational church which is now owned by the Y. M. C. A. and used as a tennis court. Members of the Grand Army post were usually selected as speakers. Ten years later the city park was used for the exercises and occasionally the Appleton theatre. Upon the completion of Lawrence Memorial chapel the exercises were transferred to that building. In the early days the only veterans in line were those of the civil war. The veterans of two other wars have since been added.

Riverside cemetery never looked prettier than Memorial day. The foliage was out in full and the grass never looked greener or the flowers brighter. The air was laden with perfume.

The new American legion plot is located on the line between Riverside and St. Joseph cemeteries. It is marked by a flag staff from which a handsome flag floated on Memorial day. The land was donated by the cemetery associations.

Capt. George Merkel, marshal of the day, selected as his aides, Col. W. H. Zuehlke, Major Lothar G. Graef, Capt. F. W. Hoffman, Capt. A. Grizmacher, Capt. James Balliet, Lieut. John Voge, Lieut. Frank Bellaw, and Scoutmaster E. R. Henderson.

The boy scouts and the girl scouts attracted a great deal of attention in

VOIGT SOON WILL BE IN HIS NEW BUILDING

J. E. Voigt expects to occupy his new quarters in the former bank building at the corner of College-ave. and Morrison-st. which he purchased within the next 60 days. The contractor engaged in changing over the building is making good progress. The vaults which ran from the basement to the second floor have been removed and the first floor lowered to the level of the sidewalk. The balcony, which is to be a feature of the new store, is also in place. The basement floor has been lowered more than a foot and a rear stairway is being put in. In fact, the greater part of the rough work is completed. The new front will not be installed until the finishing touches are put on the building.

The parade and were the recipients of many compliments.

The squad of the American legion was the first to fire a salute at Riverside cemetery. The youngsters in the cemetery evidently thought a battle was raging for in less than ten seconds after the last volley was fired they had surrounded the plot. The boys were not in evidence before the salute.

Two dispensers of ice cream cones made a small fortune near the North-st. entrance of Riverside cemetery.

LITTLE SICKNESS IN APPLETON NOW

Health Department Reports Gradual Decrease in Number of New Cases.

Diphtheria which had a foothold in Appleton early this month will be stamped out within the next two weeks providing no additional cases are reported. The young lady named Wirth, who came home from Kenosha sick with the disease, a month ago was released from quarantine Saturday. A patient in the Whitman family in the Fourth ward, where there was a death from the disease a few weeks ago, was given his freedom Friday and another will be released in a few days. A patient on Washington-st. is recovering rapidly.

The number of scarlet fever cases is also diminishing. The health department has handled 33 cases since April 13 and there are still nine to look after. At one time the number of cases reported daily exceeded the number released. The tables have since been reversed and the number of cases is gradually diminishing.

The center of area of the United States is in northern Kansas, 10 miles north of Smith Center.

DEMONSTRATOR WAS COOK ABOARD THE LUSITANIA

Milton Henoch of Pittsburgh, Pa., who completed a 3-day demonstration of electric stoves here Saturday for the Westinghouse Electric company, was chief cook aboard the Lusitania, the English vessel which was sunk by German submarines during the war.

Mr. Henoch was an ocean and hotel chef for many years and has made himself popular in every city he visits by the quality of the cooking he serves the public, after preparing it on electric ranges.

Demonstrations were conducted every evening for Langsdorf-Meyer company and the prize electric toaster was awarded to Henry Otto, Menasha.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

LAWRENCE STUDENTS PAY VISIT TO PEAT FACTORY

Prof. R. M. Bagg and ten Lawrence students visited the plant of Appleton Peat Products company in Center swamp last week. They were shown the various peat converting and fertilizer making processes by C. A. Willmarth, general manager. The visitors also spent some time in the swamp, examining the geological conditions and studying the nature of peat and its growth. Mr. Willmarth gave the students an interesting talk about the commercial possibilities of peat.

APPLETON HONORS MEN WHO OFFERED SELVES TO NATION

Immense Throngs Attend Services in Honor of City's Soldier Dead.

Never in the history of Appleton was Memorial day more generally observed than Monday. Business was not only suspended, but practically all the people turned out to honor the memory of the fallen heroes of three wars and to show their appreciation of the services rendered by the living.

The weather was ideal, the sun shining in a cloudless sky the greater part of the day and it is doubtful if the foliage, grass and flowers ever looked prettier. The spirit of patriotism was in the air and the thousands of people were thrilled anew as the veterans marched down College-ave, headed by the military band.

Flags were flying and many of the merchants went to the trouble of decorating their places of business. Poppies were quite generally in evidence and the number worn was limited to the supply. The American Legion, Co. D, and members of the band were all in uniform and made an impressive appearance.

Even still more impressive in the parade was the little band of Civil war veterans, 24, practically all that is left of the George D. Eggleston Post, G. A. R., which at one time had an enrollment of several hundred members. The ranks of this organization is being rapidly thinned by death and it is a question of only a few years when they will be missed from their accustomed place.

The procession moved promptly at 1:30 o'clock, the hour fixed by Capt. George Merkel, marshal of the day. It started at the armory with the color guard, band, Co. D. boy scouts and girl scouts, the other organizations dropping in as it moved west on College-ave. The line of march was west on College-ave., south on Morrison-st., west on Soldier square, north on Onondaga-st., and east on College-ave. to Lawrence memorial chapel, where the exercises were held.

The order in which the various organizations were lined up was color guard, band, Co. D. boy scouts, girl scouts, American Legion, unattached service men, Oney Johnston auxiliary, cars occupied by Mayor Hawes, Roy Wilcox, orator of the day, the Rev. J. L. Menzer, singers, color bearers and flower girls and by George D. Eggleston Post, G. A. R., Co. O. Baer Camp, Spanish American War Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps and J. T. Reeve Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R.

Upon reaching Lawrence Memorial hall, Co. D. scouts and American Legion formed in open order permitting the other organizations in entering the building to pass between them.

THIRD AND FIFTH WARD PROGRAMS TO BE HELD THIS WEEK

All the Graduates Will Participate in the Commencement Program.

A novel and interesting program has been arranged for the graduating exercises of Washington school which will take place at 7:45 Wednesday evening in the school auditorium. Instead of having the program presented by five or six most brilliant pupils of the class, the honors have been passed around and every graduate is to have a part. One of the most unusual features of the program is a chorus of boys. Contrary to the rule for boys of their age, they are to sing with spirit and pleasure. A dramatization of the class history by reminiscence will be given.

The program will move rapidly without taking more than one and a half hours. The prophecy will be given in a clever way. The setting is to be in 1931 in New York city, the occasion being a class reunion. The "men" and "women" decide to repeat their eighth grade program. The audience is given "second sight" in order to visualize the changes time has marked on the then famous men and women.

The program is as follows:
"Welcome to Spring".....Rubinstein Class chorus.

"Our Aims".....Emery Ender "Salutatory".....Flora Snider "Around the Camp Fire".....Rosella Rothlisberg "Failed".....Vernon Gosnell "Sailor's Song".....Hezar "Flowing Song".....Chadwick Boys chorus.

Third Ward Program

Closing exercises of the Third district school will be held at 7:45 o'clock Thursday evening in the school auditorium. The program will be unique in that pupils will have entire charge. It is to be a purely dramatic presentation and every pupil has participated in the preparations. One of the most interesting features is the class history which is a class project. Musical numbers are furnished by the members and even the costumes worn by the girls have been made by them in the domestic science class.

Downtrodden Voters

Editor, Post-Crescent — Noticing that the question of the purchase of Pierce park is again being agitated, I am somewhat surprised to learn that there is evidently a move on foot to make this purchase regardless of the wishes of the big majority of the voters of the City of Appleton.

This question was put to a vote of the people of the city and turned down so emphatically by them that any thought of its future resurrection was almost impossible.

Now we are informed that some of our city fathers, the Chamber of Commerce (a so-called Appleton benevolent organization) and Women's club (a chick of the same brood) are determined to purchase this property regardless of the result of said election, and practically tell us that they know what we want, and our wishes in the future are not to be considered. If this is government of the people, by the people, and for the people, then my idea of a free democratic government is as much lost in obscurity as that of Lloyd George of England.

Yours very truly,
J. M. Waites.

"Oh, yes! That's the manager of the home-town ball team. Fine fellow! I never knew a man who gets more enjoyment out of good cigars—except, possibly, myself. He's always smoking."

"What's his brand, George?"

"Adlon! You'll see him 'most any day out at the ball park with an Adlon in his mouth and a batch of them in his pockets. He'll never suggest to friends that they 'have a cigar'. It's always: 'Have an Adlon, Tom'; or, 'Here, Joe, smoke Adlon, a real cigar.'"

"Pretty good ad. for Adlon, eh, George?"

"Sure! He knows a good cigar when he smokes one—just as he knows a star pitcher or a crack shortstop when he sees one. And if you'll look up last season's records you'll see he's some picker when it comes to ball players!"

THOUGHTS DEVELOP BY USE OF WORDS

The use of language is not limited to the mere communication of ideas. An equally important function is that of the instrumentality of thought. It is not merely its vehicle, but its means of expansion.—Hardly any of our intellectual operations could be carried on without the agency of words. Language is, then not only the offspring of thought—but its spouse as well. In every process of reasoning words are an essential element. By their means we fashion and embody our ideas.

A dictionary is therefore a necessity more than ever before. It should be at one's elbow, whether at home, in the office, school, shop or study. For these reasons we have taken great pleasure in placing a good dictionary, such as The New Universities Dictionary, within reach of everyone of our readers. Our coupon, published daily, gives the terms.

The first phonograph disk was made in 1887, by Emil Berliner, and is now in the Smithsonian Institution at Washington.

One-fourth of the wheat we grow is the result of the researches of the Government. After years of untiring experiment and investigation, the Government, through the Department of Agriculture, was enabled to introduce into this country the remarkable Durum wheat through which our production has been increased fully twenty-five per cent. This has been only one of many surprising but little-known accomplishments of the Government, which are covered in the interesting series of stories for which we have the exclusive right of distribution in this country.

GETTING RID OF SCARLET FEVER

[Monday Health Talk No.
21, by James A. Rolfe,
D. C.]

Scarlet fever is most troublesome, especially in its after effects, which include deafness, weakness of the eyes, bad heart or weakened kidneys. Sometimes all of these after effects are present, sometimes only one or two of them.

Deafness is due to a catarrhal condition which can be corrected by adjustments. The heart weakness is directly due in most cases to weakened nerve impulses from the spine, and sometimes it is affected by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter the blood.

Uncle Ben
Says:
"The difference between Eb, Smith and John D., is that Eb has a stomach and six twins and John D. has twin sizes and no stomach."

Chiropractic spinal adjustments will restore normal nerve impulses to all of these organs and the sufferer instead of "nursing" these after effects, gets rid of them. Evidence could be cited to prove the efficacy of chiropractic in all of these after effects, but one statement is sufficient.

Deafness is Gone
"For eight years or more I suffered from a catarrhal condition of the nose and throat. I became entirely deaf in one ear, and was fast losing the other."

"I was thinking of going to Mayo Brothers when my daughter and some friends suggested chiropractic. After taking chiropractic adjustments my hearing improved wonderfully. I cannot give too much praise to chiropractic." — Mrs. Ida Blanton, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 12591.

"FIXED ME UP IN A JIFFY," SAYS SCHULZ

"Kozak proved to be a God-send to me," said O. R. Schulz, manager of the Schulz Specialty Co., 1329 Loyd St., Milwaukee, Thursday. "I was in a terrible run down condition. In fact, was hardly able to work at times. At night I would roll and toss, unable to sleep. I simply had to force myself to eat. After meals I would feel bloated and stuffed-up with pains in the stomach.

An old friend of the family told me to get Kozak. I did and now I have a ravenous appetite; can eat without any distress afterwards and am gaining in weight. Kozak put me back on my feet. I am getting a bottle for my wife now." Kozak sold only by Schmitz Bros here; Kaukauna Drug Co.; New London, Spearbraker; Hortonville, Gitter.

TROOP TWO WINS SCOUT MEET AND SETS NEW RECORD

Youngsters Come Near Equaling World Record for Scaling High Wall.

Troop No. 2, Appleton Boy Scouts, made a record in wall scaling at the field day exercises in Jones park Saturday afternoon that will win fame for the local council. The boys ran 30 feet to the 8 foot 6 inch wall, scaled it, dropped on the other side and ran another 30 feet in 25 seconds. The world's record, made by English soldiers after years of training, is 19 seconds.

This troop won first place in the meet, scoring 52 points. Troop No. 8 came a close second, with 49 points. The other troops made scattering records. Troop No. 6 had 11 points; troop No. 3 10 points, and troop No. 5, 1 point. The winners of first place were presented with a camp stove donated by A. Galpin Sons company; second place, a sanitary kit given by Downer pharmacy; Troop No. 6 was presented a set of signal flags as third prize.

Almost all of the boy scouts in the city were present to take part in the exercises. There was a good representation of members of the scout council to review the troops and witness the events. Several hundred citizens, including parents of many scouts, were on the sidelines.

Each troop had its camp arranged, with headquarters tent and pup tents erected. A review and flag raising opened the program, followed by military drill. The contests then were staged. Troop No. 2 had a perfect score in semaphore signaling with every word and letter perfect. The decision was close in the first aid contest, but went to Troop No. 2. It was necessary to go through the pyramid building contest three times to determine second and third place. H. L. Davis, Gustave Keller, George F. Verner and George Merkel acted as judges.

Inspection of headquarters was won by Troop 3, first; Troop 8, second; Troop 2, third.

BRANDTS WIN TWO GAMES ON SUNDAY AND MONDAY

NEW LONDON AND KAUKAUNA LOSE TWO GAMES HERE

Kaukauna Protests Sunday's Game Because Umpire Changes Decision.

MONDAY RESULTS
Appleton, 5; New London, 0.
Kimberly, 12; Menasha, 6.
Oshkosh, 14; Kaukauna, 2.

Let's have some more holidays! Brandt's pennant chasers went in to first place in the valley league by virtue of two wins over Kaukauna and New London Sunday and Monday. Kaukauna lost, 2 to 1, and New London went down to defeat, 5 to 0. Kaukauna has served notice it will protest the Sunday game because Umpire Doez changed a decision and called a runner out at second base after he had been called safe. New London never had a chance in Monday's battle, failing to get a man to third base. Schultz pitched both games, allowing Kaukauna four hits and holding New London to the same number. At least 2,000 people saw Monday's battle.

Schott and Mudloff, two recent additions to Brandt's team, showed up well, playing a good fielding game and hitting hard. Schott scored both runs Sunday and Mudloff helped drive in a run on Sunday.

Priebe, who had been in a hitting slump the earlier games, came back with a vengeance, clouting out three hits on Sunday and two on Monday. He played a whale of a game in the garden.

Kaukauna filed its protest in the fifth inning when Feldhausen was called out in an attempt to steal second. Schott pegged the ball to Bayer who put it on Feldhausen. Kaukauna players alleged the ump called Feldhausen safe and then changed his decision when Bayer waved the ball. The players rushed out on the field and a small war loomed up but play was quickly resumed.

Schultz retired six Kaukauna batters in two innings, in causing four of them to strike out. Schott started the ball rolling for the home team in the second inning when he was given a base on balls. Durain was out at first, but Priebe made a clean single, sending Schott around the path for the first score. Bayer and Woods struck out.

The visitors were again retired on three easy outs. Schultz started the last of the third inning by hitting, but he died on the paths while three men went out. Minkedige hit for Kaukauna in the fourth after one man was out. Jansen sacrificed but Wittig was out on a roller to pitcher.

In the fourth Schott fled to third base and Durain hit safely. Bayer fled to short and Priebe advanced Durain to third on a clean single. The two men died on the paths when Woods went out on a hit to short.

Schmidt scored the visitors' only run in the fifth. He hit a grounder along the first base line and was given two bases when the ball was kicked out of the diamond in an attempt at fielding. Nagan and Stegeman whiffed but Feldhausen banded a hit which sent Schmidt around the circuit.

Feldhausen was called out in his attempt to steal second and it was then the game was declared under protest. Schott scored the home team second run in the sixth inning. Mudloff hit for one base and Schott followed with another single. Durain fled out to center. With two men on the sacks, Murphy batted for Bayer and was given a life when Mudloff was forced out on third on a close play. Priebe made his third hit in as many times at bat, and sent Schott for the plate. Woods ended the inning by flying out to center.

The visitors put up only nine men in the last three innings. Every one of them hit but were out before they reached first base. Spies walked in the seventh inning. He reached second on a wild pitch and tried to score on Bayer's hit. He was called out on the home on a decision exactly like the one which caused the visitors to protest the game. Mudloff hit to short and was retired on first base.

Schott fled to center in the eighth inning. Durain fled to second base and Murphy went down on a hit to second. Schultz kept the Kaukauna batters from getting started in the last inning and Jansen ended the game by hitting to short stop.

Monday's game was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season, fully 2,000 people crowding into the park. Schultz was in great form, allowing four hits and striking out eight men. Logan, New London's ace, was struck on his salary wing in practice before the game and as a result was unable to show his real class. Appleton touching him for ten safeties.

Appleton got to Logan in the first inning for three runs on a base on balls and a double. Spies started with a walk and went to second on Bayer's sacrifice. Mudloff got a life when the ball was chucked to third to catch Spies but he beat the throw. Schott also got a life on a fielder's choice and then Murphy emptied the bases with a two base clout, scoring three runs.

Wood started the second with a safe drive and completed the circuit on Mudloff's single. There was nothing doing in the scoring line until the fifth when Durain started on a hit, went to second when Murphy was passed and finished the trip on Priebe's hit. Appleton hit in every inning that following, piling out two

Milton Wins Great Auto Race Before Huge Crowd

Driver of American Car Sets New Track Record—DePalma Forced Out of Race But Wins More Than $10,000 in Prizes.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Tommy Milton driving an American car, won the 500 mile automobile race here on Monday. Roscoe Searles finished second, three minutes behind Milton. The victory gave Milton $20,000 for first place and more than $8,000 in lap prizes.

Sets New Track Record
The time was 5:34:44.5, an average of 89.62 miles per hour, a new track record for cars of not more than 183 cubic inches piston displacement.

The car started by Percy Ford and driven by Elling and at the end finished third, nine laps behind Milton. Jimmy Murphy who replaced Eddie Miller, was fourth.

Haibe finished fifth and Boyer, who replaced Guyot, was sixth. Vail was seventh. Hill, who gave way to Wonderlich and then replaced him, was eighth and Mulford ninth. All the other cars were out.

Seven Forced Out
Seven drivers went out of the race through accidents, but no one was injured. Fontaine's car turned over on the north turn, hanging on the edge of the incline and threatening the lives of hundreds of persons below. The car did not fall, however.

More than one hundred and thirty thousand persons witnessed the race, breaking all attendance records.

Ralph DePalma, driving at a terrific pace, led when the drivers entered the last half of the 500 mile dash, but was forced to the pits on the one hundred and first lap with tire trouble.

DEMPSEY EASES UP IN HIS TRAINING

Champion Rapidly Getting Into Condition for July 2 Battle.

By United Press Leased Wire
Atlantic City—Jack Dempsey is under strict orders for the rest of the week.

Following a hard workout Monday for the big crowd that flocked to his training camp, the world's champion put away his gloves until Saturday. He will work only enough to keep himself in condition.

His eye, which was opened Saturday in a sparring bout with Jack Renault, is almost healed and is not expected to give him any trouble.

Manager Kearns was greatly pleased with the work of Larry Williams and Jack Renault, the two big sparring mates.

"They are giving the champion the finest of workouts. In fact they are a little bit too good for this early stage of the training and we had to cut down the work to keep Dempsey from getting his edge too soon," he said.

safe drives in the eighth but the boys could not score.

Schultz was in hot water in the sixth inning when Rupenthal and Kuenen singled after two were gone but the next two men popped out and the danger was over. Kuenen doubled in the fourth after one man was gone but was caught when he tried to go to third on Karst's roller along the third base line. Karst stole second where he died when Sengstock popped out to Bayer.

KAUKAUNA LOSES TO OSHKOSH TEAM

Avalanche of Hits and Errors Gives Victory to Sawdust City.

Oshkosh defeated the Kaukauna baseball team Monday at Kaukauna ball park by score of 14 to 2. Schmidt and Cooke allowed the visitors 18 hits and Stevenson, Oshkosh pitcher, was touched for 10 hits. The Sawdust city men scored five runs in the first inning. Peters the first man up, bailing twice. Johnson scored one run for Kaukauna in the last of the first.

Hits by Minkedige and Jansen sent him around.

The whole game was an exhibition of hits and errors. Six errors by the Kaukauna team caused a number of the Oshkosh runs. As in last Sunday's game with Kimberly, the Kaukauna hitters landed on the horsehide for longer drives, but their hits came at inopportune times.

Cooke went into the game in Schmidt's position in the third inning and he pitched the remainder of the game.

Stegeman scored Kaukauna's second run in the seventh after he banded the pill for two bases. Feldhausen followed with another two bagger, but expired on the paths when Johnson and Huber were out on short flies.

BRENNAN HANDS A TIP TO GEORGES

New York—"Any fast man with a good left will beat Jack Dempsey."

So says Bill Brennan who has fought the world's champion twice and stayed with him longer than any other boxer. Georges Carpentier, the French challenger who hopes to win the title from Dempsey in Jersey City July 2, has the speed all right and he's trying to get the good left, according to secrets drifting from the Manhasset camp. In his public bouts for the newspapermen, the Frenchman has been specializing on rights but in his private sessions he is doing the work all on the other side.

Willie Lewis, the veteran middleweight who once fought the Frenchman and later acted as a teacher for him, whispered several things in Carpentier's ear about "that left."

The usual training camp rumors are starting to be passed around now. The secrecy of Carpentier's camp makes it one ideal source for wild stories. A few days ago it was whispered around that Journee landed one on the Frenchman's jaw and knocked him out. Then it was said Italian Joe Gans landed on the Frenchman's stomach so often that he became unclubby in his sparring and was reprimanded by Manager Descamps.

"FATTENING UP" PROCESS MISTAKE, KILBANE BELIEVES

French Champion Will Be Slowed Up if He Tries to Put on Weight.

BY JOHNNY KILBANE, Featherweight Champion.

Descamps, they say, is going to "build up" Carpentier so that the challenger can enter the ring against Jack Dempsey on July 2, weighing something more than 150 pounds and not so far below the weight of the champion.

If Descamps really is serious in these announcements, he is making a grave mistake and one that will react against Georges in the battle.

Never in the history of ringdom has a boxer "built himself up" into good shape for a fight.

In order to go through this building-up process Carpentier will have to eat and drink, and this will form fats. True, some of this fat will turn to muscle, but the majority of it will not, and the entire additional fats and muscle will be in his stomach, where it does far more harm than good.

A fighter can't build up his chest or his arms or his legs in a few weeks. And these are the only places where a building-up process would aid him materially in a battle.

You never heard of a trainer fattening up a horse for a race, did you? Building up a boxer is the same idea, exactly.

Dempsey is overweight. He'll be able to lose the surplus fat that is thrown off with his final training easily, and ought to be in ideal fighting shape at the time for the bout.

But my hope is that if Carpentier really undertakes this building up or "fattening up" work, he'll be slowed up to a great extent when he goes into the ring.

Sport Views And News

From the way that Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb are walloping the old pill, it would seem as if the duties of manager aren't tending to put any crimp in their batting ability. These team leaders are hitting over the .400 mark and in addition, putting up a great game in the field. Cobb's come back has been one of the greatest surprises of the baseball season and the Georgia peach appears to be right at home in a manager's role.

We have to laugh. Jess Willard is being boomed as the man to fight the winner of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight. What's more some of the bubble blowers even go so far as to book the match for Labor day. So far as Willard is concerned, we can't see where he is entitled to a scrap with the topnotchers. Since Dempsey put the cleaners to him at Toledo, the big fellow hasn't done anything to speak of in the ring and there are a lot of other heavyweights right now who probably step all around the once powerful Jess.

Ban Johnson has lifted the ban on Carl Mays and the Yankee pitcher is again eligible to resume his hurling work. This takes a big load off Miller Huggins because he was one of the few New York pitchers who has been turning in regular wins this year. The box artist was suspended for a run in with an umpire at St. Louis but his suspension was cut short by the American league prexy. It seems as if Mays is always in hot water of some kind.

That Sailor-Freedman-Johnny Dundee scrap at East Chicago sort of left a nasty taste. Neither of the fighters appeared to show real form and the bout was so off color that the spectators were riding the boxers during the closing rounds. And as an aftermath, the fight critics differed over the decision and this has put the stakeholders in a quandary as to which way to pay the bets.
